The Newsletter of the Starfleet Command Fleet Flagship

FROM THE BRIDGE of the USS HALSEY NCC-2686-A

By VADM Mary Bischoff

Greetings and welcome to May! I apologize, I'm definitely late in getting the newsletter out this month. Bear in mind, there will not be a newsletter next month as we will be on vacation.

We had an awesome turnout for the lecture at the Indiana Medical History Museum. The subject matter was touching, and it was neat to see how a dig in the field actually proceeded.

The plane washing went well. We had plenty of people so we actually did our plane, as well as another. The weather wasn't extreme one way or the other, and nobody fell off of anything so I count that as a win!

What can I say about "Captain America: Winter Soldier"? I can say, Oh. My. God. And if you're a Marvel Agents of Shield viewer, then you'll know that they tied the movie and the TV show together nicely. Awesome!

I think I can safely say that a good time was had by all at the spring camping event. Clans Bischoff, Walker and Sams were in attendance, plus we were joined by Colleen and the Motts. It was pleasantly warm, and it only rained two nights. No lightning storms or tornadoes, so that's a definite improvement over our usual weather! Jamie and Justin came out for hiking on Saturday, and we had a rowdy bunch of folks for Cards against Humanity, provided by Andy & Lil. Mark and Gloria were missed by all!

This month's meeting is our annual away mission down to Georgetown, IN to visit Janet Dailey and her bunch! This takes place on Saturday, May 17 at noon at her house. We'll be caravanning down, leaving the Bischoff abode at around 9:30 am. This allows plenty of time for a stop en route for the facilities and getting down there for lunch.

Remember, there's no meeting next month. I hope to see you all before InConjunction!

VADM Mary Bischoff

Did anybody notice in "Captain America: Winter Soldier" what was on Cap's list of things to do to catch up?

There are only two words that describe the meaning of Memorial Day.

“THANK YOU”
