Lottery Game

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (WTHR) - Some Indiana veterans have a new idea on how to fund much-needed programs. They want to run a game with the Hoosier Lottery and use the proceeds to help former members of the military.

"I started with one dollar last week and won five and just kept playing them," said Elbert Davis.

Davis is not alone. Hoosier scratch-off games in the Indiana Lottery generated $759 million in 2015. It was $870 million in 2016.

With those numbers in mind, Indiana veterans decided to ask lawmakers for the right to start a Hoosier Veterans scratch-off game. Revenue would go toward help for Indiana veterans.

Stargate in Indy

Don't you think it looks like a Stargate?

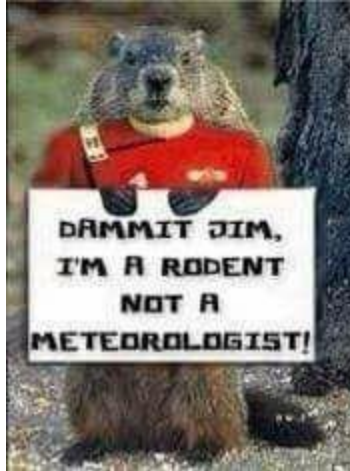

The Bicentennial Plaza at the Indiana State House is ready to be enjoyed by the public. The plaza is centered on the intersection of Senate Avenue and Robert D. Orr Plaza. The new Plaza creates a public space that can be used by government center employees, along with all citizens and visitors to Indiana. The design is intended to make the Plaza an engaging space that includes a water feature and two public art pieces, one representing elements of the Torch and another as a figurative interpretation of a time capsule.
