Happy 4th of July

June's Meeting

June's Meeting 2019 was at El Mariachi. We had 6 crewmembers in attendance. We had a few trivia contests, and we had two birthdays. Everyone had a wonderful time and the food was really good too.

PC/Movie

PC/Movie Meeting at Mike's home. We watched "Finding Bigfoot". It was another good time for everyone. We had 4 crew members and 1 guest at this meeting.

SFC News

This might be a good time to remind people that there IS a Starfleet Command Marine Corps. We remain the Few. There is a Fleet Marine Forces Manual (2018) that will familiarize the new Fleet Marine with who we are, our history, our equipment and how we think.

If YOU think you have what it takes to become a member of 1STMARDIV, you should contact the Starfleet Academy (academy@sfcq1.com) and order the Fleet Marine - Basic manual + exam. Don't forget that we have patches available as well. <https://starfleet-command.com/shop>

We start off this mid-summer month with what will be a short week for many- with the work week broken up by a salute to America! All the fireworks won't be in the atmosphere, though- we'll be providing our share on your TV and with some anniversary news! First, let's light the fuse on what you'll be seeing Saturdays this month!

How To Prevent An ANXIETY ATTACK

Start by breathing deeply in through your nose, and out through your mouth. Then, slowly bring awareness to...

- 5 Things you can see
- 4 Things you can touch
- 3 Things you can hear
- 2 Things you can smell
- 1 Emotion you can feel

This is called grounding - it helps when you've gone too far in your own head and lost all control of your surroundings.

Please share this - it could really help someone in need!

Star Trek Fact

Although his name is never given in this movie, according to Star Trek canon, the Vulcan who salutes Zefram Cochrane is named Solkar. As mentioned in The Search for Spock, Solkar is the father of Sarek, and subsequently the grandfather of Spock.
